

OVERVIEW

The Express Scholarship is designed to meet Air Force ROTC officer production requirements in specific fields and year groups. The list of approved fields and year groups varies from time to time and may change at any time without notice.

This program awards Type 2<sup>1</sup> scholarships and a tax-free monthly stipend.

The Express Scholarship program is operated on a fully-qualified basis. Those who meet the qualifications are awarded the scholarship and do not meet a scholarship selection board. The processing of the scholarship nomination is completed at the local detachment.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible to apply for an Express Scholarship, an applicant must:

- Be a United States citizen
